Quilt Matters

Heritage Quilt Guild

President's Notes

Hello Ladies,
I hope you enjoyed Elaine with Loose Threads, I know I did. I am trying to get into her evening classes. I also want to thank Anita for all the hard work she always puts in. She goes above and beyond. Thank you Anita. I hear the Opportunity quilt is finished, yeah. I can't wait to see it. Thank you to Jo Bell for quilting it and I know Jane had it to start the binding. I don't know if she had help with that, but I want to thank everyone for pitching in. I hope all is well with everyone and I will see you soon.

Happy Quilting.

Dana

Secretary's Report From May Meeting

The May meeting was called to order on time by Dana on May 7. We opened with a presentation by Elaine of Loose Threads quilt store in Harriman. She demo'd a lazy angle tool/ruler which can be used to make a simple two-patch block and arranged in many different configurations. We also had a shopping period and saw several beautiful sample quilts.

Treasurer's report is: beginning balance of $2,869.45 which expenses of $50.00, 33.79 and 135.92 for an ending balance of $2,649.74. Kelie mentioned that anyone not receiving the newsletter can see it on the website and also let her know.

The opportunity quilt is being finished (now done) and due by June 1 so we can start selling raffle chances. Quilts of Valor has recently presented 4 quilts to veterans. Several cuddle quilts were displayed and you can bring additional ones to any meeting. We proceeded with show and tell.

The final business at the meeting was to discuss the progress toward the 5-star quilt show currently planned for early summer 2014. JoAnn and Jo reported on recent meetings and Dana asked members to consider activities that the guild would be willing to undertake for this show. Members generally agreed we could register quilts, hang the show (with some additional labor) and return quilts to owners. Also provide some door and white glove ladies. Overall, the group felt that if no guild funds were achieved it would be better not to participate. There will be a meeting later this month when the show committee will present its' case to the regional cultural arts council in hopes they will provide many of the functions required that current groups cannot undertake. More information to come as it is available.

Next meeting Tue. June 4 at 7:00
